What is a Cookie?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer or mobile device when you visit a webpage or application, containing some information connected with your usage of this website or application. Cookies are then sent back to the originating website on each subsequent visit, or to another website that recognizes that cookie, to develop a record of your online activity.

For what purposes do we use cookies?

We use Cookies for the following purposes:

1. for statistical purposes through analysis of aggregate data on traffic and manner of use of our websites;
2. we create statistics that help us understand how you access our website, which allows us to improve the structure of our website and its content and thus improve your experience;
3. creating a profile for you in order to display matching materials in regard to advertising networks, such as the Google Display Network;

4. to run statistics on traffic to reliably conduct settlements with advertising partners;

5. to remember your settings between browsing sessions and customize the website to better suit your needs and preferences, such as selecting the display language or currency;

6. for marketing purposes, also on the basis of automated processing containing profiling elements, in particular, for adaptation of our websites, offers and advertising to your interests.

What Cookies do we use?

To achieve the above-mentioned goals, our website uses two basic types of cookies, mainly 'session cookies' and 'persistent cookies'.

'Session cookies' are temporary cookies that are used to remember you during the course of your visit to our website, and they expire when you close the web browser.

'Persistent cookies' are stored in your browser for a longer period of time – even after you close your browser or restart your computer – as specified in the parameters of the cookie or until you remove the cookie.

The list of specific cookies that we use on our website, their purposes, typical parameters and storage period is available below:

1. Essential: These are Cookies that are essential for a comfortable use of the site, they allow enabling basic functions such as website navigation or secure web access. The website may not function properly without these cookies.

2. Functionality: These are Cookies which store your preferences enable the website to remember information connected with functioning and layout of the website, such as preferred language or user's current position.

3. Analytics: These cookies are used for statistical purposes which help website us to understand how different users interact with our websites, behave on the website by collecting and reporting anonymous information. These Cookies collect information in the aggregate to give us insight into how our website is being used.

The following table has more information about these cookies:

Cookie Name	Source	Expiry	Purpose
_ga	Googe Analytics	2 Years	Used to distinguish users.
_gid	Googe Analytics	24 hours	Used to distinguish users.
_dc_gtm_	Google Tag Manager	1 min	Used to throttle request rate.
AMP_TOKEN	Google Analytics	30s. – 1 year	Contains a token that can be used to retrieve a Client ID from AMP Client ID service. Other possible values indicate opt-out, inflight request or an error retrieving a Client ID from AMP Client ID service.
gac	Google Analytics	90 days	Contains campaign related information for the user.

_hjClosedSurveyInvites	Hotjar	1 year	Hotjar cookie. This cookie is set once a visitor interacts with a Survey invitation modal popup. It is used to ensure that the same invite does not re-appear if it has already been shown.
_hjDonePolls	Hotjar	1 year	Hotjar cookie. This cookie is set once a visitor completes a poll using the Feedback Poll widget. It is used to ensure that the same poll does not re-appear if it has already been filled in.
_hjMinimizedPolls	Hotjar	1 year	Hotjar cookie. This cookie is set once a visitor minimizes a Feedback Poll widget. It is used to ensure that the widget stays minimizes when the visitor navigates through your site.
_hjDoneTestersWidgets	Hotjar	1 year	Hotjar cookie. This cookie is set once a visitor submits their information in the Recruit User Testers widget. It is used to ensure that the same form does not reappear if it has already been filled in.
_hjIncludedInSample	Hotjar	1 year	Hotjar cookie. This session cookie is set to let Hotjar know whether that visitor is included in the sample which is used to generate funnels.
_hjShownFeedbackMessage	Hotjar	1 year	This cookie is set when a visitor minimizes or completes Incoming Feedback. This is done so that the Incoming Feedback will load as minimized immediately if they navigate to another page where it is set to show.
_hjid	Hotjar	1 year	Hotjar cookie. This cookie is set when the customer first lands on a page with the Hotjar script. It is used to persist the Hotjar User ID, unique to that site on the browser. This ensures that behavior in subsequent visits to the same site will be attributed to the same user ID.
_hjRecordingLastActivity	Hotjar	1 year	This should be found in sessionStorage (as opposed to cookies). This gets updated when a visitor recording starts and when data is sent through the WebSocket (the visitor performs an action that Hotjar records).
hjTLDTest	Hotjar	Session	When the Hotjar script executes we try to determine the most generic cookie path we should use, instead of the page hostname. This is done so that cookies can be shared across subdomains (where applicable). To determine this, we try to store the _hjTLDTest cookie for different URL substring alternatives until it fails. After this check, the cookie is removed.

_hjUserAttributesHash	Hotjar	Session	User Attributes sent through the Hotjar Identify API are cached for the duration of the session in order to know when an attribute has changed and needs to be updated.
_hjCachedUserAttributes	Hotjar	Session	This cookie stores User Attributes which are sent through the Hotjar Identify API, whenever the user is not in the sample. These attributes will only be saved if the user interacts with a Hotjar Feedback tool.
